

CONTINGENT LIABILITY ENDORSEMENT – E61

In consideration of the premium charged, the Motor Truck Cargo Rider is extended to cover the contingent liability of the Insured for loss or damage to goods and merchandise the property of others accepted for transportation by the Insured while in transit in the custody of any other land carrier to whom the property is transshipped by the Insured, it being the intent of this clause to protect the Insured in the event that the other carrier fails to indemnify the owner of the goods and the Insured should be held liable to pay.

Except as otherwise provided by this endorsement, all limits, terms, conditions, provisions, definitions and exclusions of the policy shall have full force and effect.